Texas Drawdown Could Be YOUR Ticket to a New 4 X 4

Win this year's Independent Cattlemen's Association (ICA) Texas Drawdown, and you could be driving a 2009 Club Car RT950, complete with a custom trailer to pull the new 4 x 4 vehicle. Tickets for the drawdown, a long-standing tradition at the ICA Convention and Trade Show, are $75 each, or two for $125. Tickets always sell out, so purchase yours by contacting the nearest ICA chapter, or call the ICA headquarters in Lockhart at 512-620-0162. Ticket holders do not have to be present to win.

During the drawdown, numbered ping-pong balls, which correspond to the individually numbered drawdown tickets, are pulled from a hopper. All tickets numbers are to be drawn and prizes will be awarded at pre-determined intervals.

Prizes will be presented throughout the convention, with the grand drawdown prizes to be awarded Thursday, June 10, during the evening convention social. Among the prizes are the 4 X 4 vehicle, donated by the Southeast ICA; and the accompanying trailer, given by the South Central ICA. For every 25th ticket drawn, $100 gift cards will be given away, donated by the Colorado Valley, Gonzales County and Victoria Crossroads ICA chapters. Also to be presented is a set of western-style patio furniture, donated by the North East Texas ICA Chapter; a custom-made fire pit from the Guada-Coma ICA Chapter; and a ton of cattle cubes from Capitol Feed and Milling Co., Inc. in Bastrop. Other prizes will be awarded, valued at a minimum of $200 each.
